I am thrilled to be back at the Corner in my new role as Executive Director! I began my career here as a health educator and have always been passionate about the health of young people. To serve youth effectively, we must ask them what they need and genuinely listen to their answers. The Corner makes this happen in many ways.

➤ I am incredibly proud that we now have four seats on our Board of Directors specifically for youth members.

➤ Last year, Corner youth and staff, working with the University of Michigan School of Social Work and the Michigan Institute for Clinical and Health Research, identified a need to further expand the Corner’s mental health services, which we are now addressing.

➤ A grant from the Community Foundation for Southeast Michigan is bringing together youth from the Corner and Ozone House to gather input from their peers about health and safety in Ypsilanti, and the youth will personally present this information to local community leaders in the upcoming year.

A key factor in the Corner’s success is YOU! None of our work is possible without your generous support. As you can see in this report, a funding gap exists between what it costs us to provide health care for our patients and what insurance reimburses; and between what programs cost and what grants fund. You help ensure we meet our mission of turning no young person away. We are proud of our past year’s work and look forward to the upcoming year. With your help, we can continue to give youth a voice and provide them with the services they need the most.

Thank you for being here for youth!

The 2014 fiscal year ran from October 1, 2013 through September 30, 2014.
Theatre Troupe peer educators performed for more than 1,400 young people on topics like depression awareness, STI/HIV prevention, and substance use prevention.

The Youth Leadership Council (pictured here) completed the first youth-led evaluation of the Corner’s clinic and worked with staff to make the Corner more youth-friendly.

The Board of Directors recruited four young people to join the board as full voting members to ensure youth voice is included in organizational decision making.

With your generous support, our youth empowerment programs grew in 2014.
